DESCRIPTION

This fantastic lights through the grille Land Rover was sold new through Titan motors of Zurich in 1951. This vehicle was discovered on a farm near Basel by early Land Rover enthusiasts in 2015 and moved to Belgium. The vehicle spent the next few years running about in unrestored condition. The vehicle was subsequently sold on in 2017 and came back to the UK for a full restoration that was completed in 2020. This charming left hand drive vehicle is ready more than ready for the next chapter of its life.
